

WILL S. GREEN AWARD

2016

Tim O'Halloran

The 2016 recipient of the Will S. Green Award is Tim O'Halloran. Tim currently serves as the General Manager for the Yolo County Flood Control & Water Conservation District (District), which manages water supplies for a significant part of Yolo County. This region has been at the forefront of efforts to preserve farms, rural communities and the environment. For the past thirteen years, Tim has worked with diverse interests and he has helped to develop innovative and holistic water resources management programs to meet California's 21st Century water challenges. Tim and the District have forged partnerships throughout the region to provide reliable and affordable water for farms and ranches, while preserving the natural resources of the Cache Creek watershed. He has also developed innovative programs to improve information management, the sagacious and efficient management of water, water quality and habitat. He has also been a statewide leader in creatively managing the surface and groundwater resources in a conjunctive manner.

THE WILL S. GREEN AWARD is presented annually by the Northern California Water Association Board of Directors to an individual who has devoted their life to the promotion and advancement of irrigation and regional sustainability in the Sacramento Valley.
